Name: Leandro Baroca Communication Assessment Unit 1

General communication	Relevance rating: 0 - 5	Comments:
Cultural and Languages	5	Having an understanding of the language of the people in the group discussion is important because you need to have an understanding of what they are saying.
Tone of voice	5	Having a good tone of voice is important because you need the group to listen to your discussion. Your tone of voice can also be used to assert yourself.
Terminology	3	Using the correct words can be important but it is not very important in a group discussion.
Specific Format	5	This type of format is a typical business meeting.
Importance of accuracy	5	Having accurate facts is important because in a group discussion you need to make decisions and those decisions have to be accurate.
Keeping audience engaged	5	Keeping the audience engaged in a group discussion is very important because you need to have everyone listening to your points in order to make the discussion valid.

Requires Technology	2	Technology isn't important in a group discussion but it can be used for note taking or a source of information.
Questions and Answers	5	Question and answers are very important because it is what makes a discussion.

Interpersonal skills	Relevance rating: 0 - 5	Comments:
Verbal	5	Verbal skills are really important in a group discussion because you need to communicate via voice when in a face to face discussion.
Visual or hearing impaired	4	Being visually impaired in a discussion may not be important when listening to others, but if you are a minute taker, then you must see to take notes down (unless you have minor visual impairment that can be solved with glasses). If you are hearing impaired you cannot hear the discussion therefore not being a part of the group discussion, unless there is a translator for sign language.

Body Language	2	Body language is not necessarily needed in a group discussion since the group is sitting down, but movement of hands and such can be distracting for others.
Positivity or negativity	4	Having positive or negative views is important in a discussion because it shows the good and bad side of the subject, therefore concluding the subject for its use.
Summarising and repeating	4	Repeating can be important because some people may not of heard your question or answer, or that the minute taker may not have heard what the person was talking about.
Environmental barriers	2	Environmental factors are rare but they can disturb the meeting which can lead to a complete abandon of the meeting. These factors can include: Fire, extreme weather, power outage, etc.

Social barriers	4	Having confidence in a group discussion is important because you need to take part in the discussion and explain your positives, negatives, etc.
Questioning; Open, Closed etc.	5	Having open questions in a discussion is very important because you need detailed feedback from the group. Closed questions can help put a final verdict on the subject.
Responding; Speed, tone etc.	5	Responding is very important in a discussion. The speed of response can be fast but not too fast, being to slow isn't much of a problem but it is time wasting. The tone has to be loud enough for everyone in the room to hear, if you are too quiet people or the minute taker may not hear you. Too loud you may be seen as obnoxious and people can ignore you.

Written communication	Relevance rating: 0 - 5	Comments:

Emoticons	1	Emoticons cannot be used in a group discussion because it is a face to face communication. But emotions, which are what emoticons are based on, can be used because it is a natural thing.
Accurate information	5	Having accurate information is important in a discussion because you need to make a point in which you understand fully so no mistakes can be done or just the embarrassment of correction from others.
Spelling and Grammar	5	Having good spelling and grammar is important for the minute taker because other important people are going to read his notes, therefore it needs to have really good spelling and grammar. The rest don't need spelling because they are communicating verbally, but grammar still applies.
Specific Structure; i.e. Look	5	The structure of a business meeting consists of: A chairman, a time keeper, a minute taker and the rest of the contributors. This is very important so the meeting is organized properly.

Relevance of contributions	5	Being part of the group discussion is important because being in a group discussion, you have to contribute so you can have answers to your point of view so you can conclude yourself and others too.
Need to proof-read	3	Proof reading can be important for a minute taker so he doesn't make mistakes which can be vital, but for everyone else proof-reading isn't important because they are not writing.
Balanced views shared	4	Having balanced views on the subject is important so that there is a good and bad view on the subject, if there are only bad or good views then it may lead to a bad discussion.
Note taking	4	Note taking is important if you are the minute taker. If you are not the minute taker note taking is as important.
