General communication	Relevance rating: 0 - 5	Comments:
Cultural and Languages	5	It's important to have an understanding of other people's communication.
Tone of voice	1	Tone cannot be expressed with typing but emoticons or capitals can be used to simulate tone of voice .
Terminology	4	Using the correct words can be important because a tweet has a limit of 140 characters.
Specific Format	3	The format of twitter is that it is a microblog.
Importance of accuracy	4	Having accurate facts is really important in a discussion because if you make a false statement you can make a false point, therefore making the discussion dishonest.
Keeping audience engaged	5	Keeping the audience engaged is always important in a discussion because you need to send a point across and if no one is paying attention you point won't be relevant to the group.

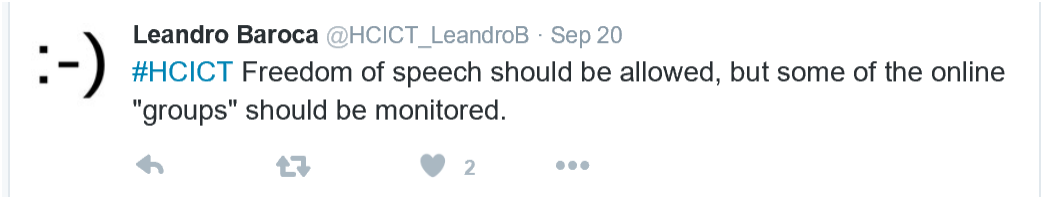

Requires Technology	5	Technology is needed to talk on a microblog like Twitter.
Questions and Answers	4	Having questions and answers is very important because it's what makes up a discussion. This is what makes points and conclusions in a discussion.

Interpersonal skills	Relevance rating: 0 - 5	Comments:
Verbal	1	N/A in a microblog since it does not have a VoIP system. But the use of video can express vocal skills.
Visual or hearing impaired	3	If someone was visually impaired he/she would have a hard time reading the document, but it can be solved with magnifying glasses or text-to-speech. If someone was hearing impaired he/she wouldn't have a problem reading the tweets.
Body Language	1	N/A online, But on a video you can express body language.
Positivity or negativity	4	Being positive or negative is important so the discussion of the subject can have two sides to it, seeing which point is more important than the other.

Summarising and repeating	2	Summarising is important so a conclusion can be made, but repeating isn't very important since your tweet stays there (unless it is deleted).
Environmental barriers	1	A storm or other forms of bad weather could interrupt the technology needed to talk online.
Social barriers	3	Social barriers can affect your communication because if you are shy or very introvert you would have a very hard time trying to communicate in the discussion.
Questioning; Open, Closed etc.	4	Asking open questions is very important so there can be a detailed answer. Closed questions are good for summarising.
Responding; Speed, tone etc.	4	Responding to an answer is very important. The speed of response isn't as important because you can use Twitter at anytime, anywhere.

Written communication	Relevance rating: 0 - 5	Comments:
Emoticons	1	Emoticons aren't very relevant but you can use them in twitter.
Accurate information	5	Accuracy is very important because you have to post the right information.
Spelling and Grammar	4	Spelling and grammar is very important because you need to look professional in some discussions, especially serious ones.
Specific Structure; i.e. Look	3	The structure of twitter is really simplistic but takes time to learn its functions, but once you learn them you can use twitter really fast and efficiently.
Relevance of contributions	5	Contribution is important because everyone needs to express their own opinion about the topic
Need to proof-read	3	Proof-reading is good to check if you have any spelling or grammar mistakes.
Balanced views shared	3	Balanced views aren't very important, but it is good to have them so there is no superior dominance or serious arguing.

Note taking	1	Note taking isn't a very important part to twitter because you could always go back and check previous tweets.

@matjatko Yes it may set them off, but it would also stop the posting of propaganda. But if FoS was limited, would it still be FoS?

@HCICT_DylanF but terrorist groups like ISIS are also using Twitter to their advantage, and with freedom of speech, they can have their say.
